

Would you like to polish your presentation skills and help a high school student understand the importance of school?

Are you willing to help show students why creating and maintaining a budget is vital to our economy?

Feel nervous? Don't worry you can work with a partner!

Junior Achievement volunteers are role models to our youth!

Volunteer on Wednesday, October 14, 2009

from 7:30am - 11am

Springfield Central High School or Springfield Sci-Tech

Explore the Possibilities

JA Economics for Success[™]
opens a world of possibility for students.

Junior Achievement's Economics for Success program guides
students through career exploration and teaches them how to make smart financial decisions.
