Wesley Jackson

South End Community Center/ WSU

Wesley grew up on Parker Street in Springfield. He started at Springfield's South End Community Center 20 years ago, as an intern coaching basketball. In 2018 he became the Executive Director of the Center, managing the day-to-day operations, but he says his biggest challenge is keeping kids on the right path, one he followed because of his own experience. Wesley also serves as the Assistant Men's Basketball Coach at Westfield State University and as the Athletic Director for the Paulo Freire Social Justice Charter School.
